

Please do not reverse the no call list in Indiana. It is an invasion of my personal privacy to be harassed by unwanted solictation calls.

If I want to conduct business with someone I will call them.

I was given the chance to sign up and I did so of my own free will and do not wish that my wishes be overturned.

Please respect my rights.

Thank You

Karen Whitecotton